

PRIVACY INFORMATION- COLLECTION STATEMENT

The Bendigo Jockey Club collect the personal information of its Members through the Members Application Form/Annual Subscription Form and, from time to time, in other ways for example, when a Member updates his or her information.

The Bendigo Jockey Club uses this information to administer Club Membership rights and privileges including the provision of services to its Members.

The Bendigo Jockey Club may disclose this information to a Club contractor and service providers engaged by the Club to help the administrations process and to provide these services.

Members have certain rights to access their personal information held by the Bendigo Jockey Club. They can find out more about this by contacting the Club by writing to P.O Box, 6044 White Hills 3550, phoning (03) 5448 4209, faxing (03) 5448 4990 or emailing: info@bendigo.countryracing.com.au

From time to time, the Bendigo Jockey Club may also use your personal information to send you:

- Information about events to be held at the Bendigo racecourse, and other events held by the horseracing industry; or
- Information about other products and services from other organisations, unless you indicate your preferences not to receive such information.
